

Police Brutality Doesn't Add Up Teach In

*Take a Stand
Learn some Math*

Wednesday Nov 16 11am-5pm
Dwinelle Plaza

We are a group of UCB and SF State mathematicians. We hold these special talks outside to take a stand against last Wednesday's police brutality by doing what we do best: mathematics!

For more information contact the Organizer Nathan Ilten: nilten@math.berkeley.edu

Time	Topic	Speaker	Intended Audience
11am	Introduction to Tropical Geometry	Chris Manon	Math Undergraduates
12pm	The Mathematics of Altruism and Civil Involvement	Andrew Critch	General Public
1pm	The Mathematics of Voting Systems	Charlie Crissman	General Public
2pm	Introduction to the Riemann Hypothesis	Eugenia Rosu	Math Undergraduates
3pm	The Plank Problem	Piotr Achinger	Math Undergraduates
4pm	Geometry, the Majority Vote and the Power of Agenda Control	Felix Breuer	General Public